

I understand that the no call list law is in danger of being changed so that my family and I will potentially receive more calls from telemarketers. I feel very strongly that this law has brought an element of peace to our household which I would greatly regret losing. I do not wish to see this law relaxed so as to increase the telemarketing calls that we will receive.